One of the area's most enjoyed shows, the Artisans' Marketplace is a juried show bringing together 40 fine artisans to showcase their wares and to launch the holiday shopping season. A variety of mediums have been represented including hand painted textiles, rare wood turned pieces, functional & decorative ceramics, painting, photography, woven textiles, fine silver jewelry, large scale glass art, painted furniture and specialty foods.

The show attracts over 2,000 patrons to the Waverly Community House, an architecturally significant building in the heart of Waverly's National Historic District.

Lunch and refreshments are available to exhibitors and can be delivered to the booth. Special attention is paid to participants by the event planners. In addition, the Community House hosts it's Annual Holiday House Tour on Sunday, November 21st, which is an added attraction boosting attendance to the Marketplace.
