- One of the area's most enjoyed shows, the Artisans' Marketplace is a juried show bringing together artisans, craftspeople, and makers to showcase their wares and to launch the holiday shopping season. A variety of mediums are represented including hand painted textiles, rare wood turned pieces, functional and decorative ceramics, painting, photography, woven textiles, fine jewelry, glass, painted furniture and specialty foods for purchase.
- This show is set against the picturesque backdrop of the Waverly Community House, an architecturally significant building in the heart of Waverly's National Historic District.

Booth Rental:

- The Artisans' Marketplace will be hosted outdoors, on the front lawn of the Waverly Community House. Note: If there is inclement weather and state regulations allow, the marketplace will be moved indoors.
- All vendors are given the opportunity to apply to be in the show based on 3 different tiered pricing options, as shown below. Tents will be provided and each vendor will be allotted an approximately 10' x 10' space with an 8 foot table, table cover, and 2 chairs if desired.

Tier 1 - Front Lawn & North Abington Road $300 (or indoors on main floor of gym)

Tier 3 - Side Lawn, Church Street & corner of North Abington Road $150 (or indoors in the wings of the community house)

- If you are accepted into the show as a vendor and the tier level that you have applied for is no longer available, you will be contacted by a committee member to discuss alternative options.
- Booth locations are at the discretion of the event planners
- Note : Should you be selected and the event is canceled due to covid related shutdowns or inclement weather, your booth fee will be applied to 2023.
