The Waverly Community House is a 501(c)3 charitable organization committed to offering educational, recreational, cultural and social opportunities throughout the region.

The Comm is home to so many activities, such as: summer day camps, art and music programs, special needs programming, after school daycare, youth events and athletic programs, and outdoor recreational facilities.

The Comm's activities, playground and common areas are open to the public. It welcomes thousands of visitors all year long. Through its tremendous spirit of civic engagement, the Comm has served the community for over a century.

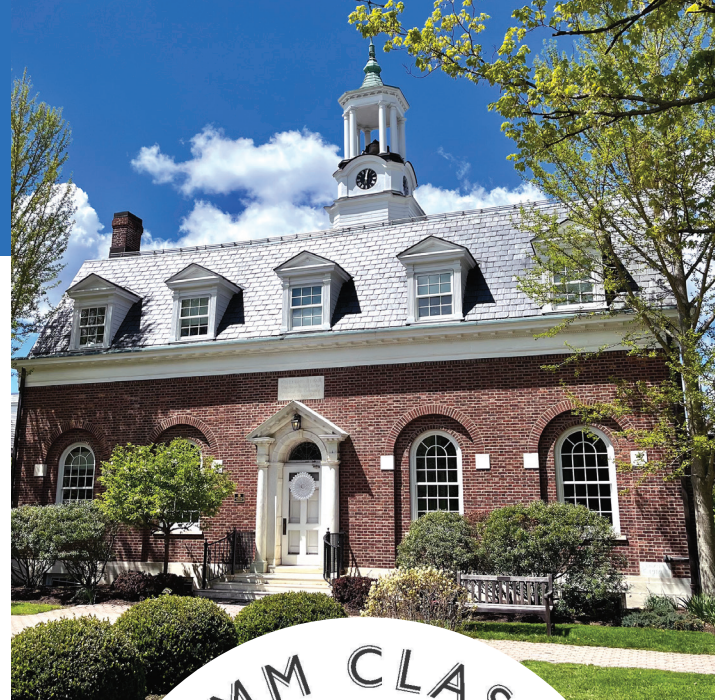

Jeffrey Orr Haudenschild

Jeff was a beloved husband, father, friend and businessman who quietly shared his time, talent and treasure without reserve or judgment.

His input over the course of his 13-year tenure on the Comm's Board of Trustees left a lasting legacy of service and growth. Jeff tirelessly helped where needed and had fun in the process.

His many contributions to the Waverly Community House especially during the Centennial Campaign and the pandemic, were significant. He is missed and we honor him as one of the very good guys.

In memory of our dear friend
Jeffrey Orr Haudenschild
